Dear Mr. Foreman,

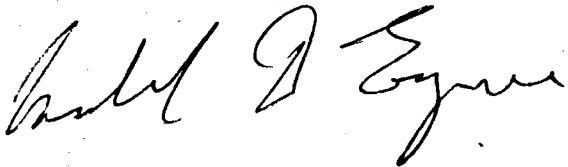

Further to our recent telephone conversations, I called Arthur Hanes in Birmingham to find out what has happened to the copy affidavits and other documents that I had sent to him last November.

He told me that these would be handed over to you immediately and you will probably have received them from him by the time this letter reaches you.

I presume that you will now no longer require me to send you copies of these documents and the Court transcripts but if you do, I would be obliged if you would wire me £285 to cover the expenses and I will immediately make the necessary copies for you.

If I may be of any other assistance to you please do not hesitate to call or write.

Yours sincerely,

Michael D. Eugene
