

LAND - BELOAT/BELOTE GRAVEYARD

Located at 4556 Chambers Chapel Road is the old Land place, formerly Beloate Place and in 1953 owned by M.M. Hendron. A long narrow road goes straight back to the old original house now used for farm storage and in an advanced stage of decay. A narrow bridge must be crossed and a cattle fence gap opened to get in. The cattle were glad to see us, thinking we had some feed for them - the pasture as bare as dead of winter due to drouth. The graveyard was easy to spot, located a short distance north and slightly eastward from the house. An old wire fence surrounds it. These families were related to Mr. Simpson Land, elder of Morning Sun Cumberland Presbyterian Church. He wanted to be buried in the old family graveyard as his wife did, but since it was closed off he chose Morning Sun. He was very proud of his Land-Buckley Bible which "his grand mother, Cynthia Reddit, brought when she came down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers in a flat boat, and up the Wolf River." Mrs. Ellen Davies-(Rodgers) in her report on the Iron Casket Man stated the Aquilla Reddit family were the first to own the Pulliam place. Mr. Land must not have known this. In fact, he had a full genealogy back to his own Bible recordings a Williams family. Said he didn't know those other than the Reddits. Three married Buckleys.
