HARWELL FAMILY PLOT

Mr. Stanley Wright uncovered a metallic burial casket while plowing land he and his father, E.B. Wright, rented from Mrs. Kate Bond Wiggins in the southwest corner of Hwy #64 and Kate Bond Road. Subsequently the casket was taken to the Memphis Pink Palace Museum. Through research of the Shelby County deeds, it was discovered that Thomas Harwell purchased the land November 4, 1841 from B.E. and W.A. Elliott. Harwell's will was probated December 1854 and named his three children, Nancy Edwards, wife of Peter, Catherine Kelly, wife of Joshua, and Martha Dill. In 1859 a Chancery Court decree vested title to Elijah Pulliam by the children but specifically excludes "a grave lot 60 X 40 feet."
