

21st July 1968

Sir,

'The Times' of London of yesterday publishes on page 4 a photograph of the Sheriff of SELBY County with James Earl Ray.

The Sheriff of Gloucester County, New Jersey, who will know that Mayor Joseph Bowe of Glassboro died on 22nd June 1967, might wish to mention to Judge Theodore Levin, Chief Judge of The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, that His Royal Highness The Prince Henry Windsor Duke of Gloucester Earl of Ulster and Baron Culloden will know that under the Norman and early Plantagenet Kings of England The Earldom of Cambridge was united with Huntingdon.

The Head of The Federal Bureau of Investigation might wish to remind you President of the air fields of Greenland and mention, if it can be of service, that I hold The Flag of Denmark

Yours faithfully
Sturminster
